THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE (SHRI BHUVNESH CHATURVEDI): (a) R.B.I, has not published data relating to per capita Central Assistance to State Governments.

(b) to (d) Do not arise.

Indian Navy

549. SHRI K.R. MALKANI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have seen the report 'Jane's Fighting Ship' appearing in "The Statesmen", dated the 25th August, 1995 stating that the "Indian Navy is in decline" and the Indian Express's report, dated the 10th September, 1995 that "Budget cuts leave only 40 per cent of Navy Sea-worthy", and

(b) what is Government's reaction in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE AND DEPTT. OF DEFENCE RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT) (SHRI MALLIKARJUN): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) There had been some slowing down in naval procurements due to the resource crunch. Several acquisitions have been approved/made recently to maintain the force level and enhance operational capability. These include a Training Ship from the UK and a Tanker from Russia and a Sail Training Ship, four Fast Attack Crafts, two Missile Boats and 10 Dornier aircraft from indigenous sources. In addition, some major proposals relating to acquisition of ships, submarines and aircraft are in the pipelines.

The non-availability of Russian spares followed by the disintegration of the ersthwile USSR had also affected the Navy. With the new found access to the Original Equipment Manufactures, many of the spares requirements of the Navy have been met.
